The NCO/Airmen's Wives Club presented a fashion show of summer clothing for men, women and children on Saturday night at the 656th Radar Squadron (SAGE), Saratoga Springs Air Force Station, in the NCO Club and recreation hall.

Mrs. Kitty Garwin introduced the models, who included: For women's wear, Mrs. Jarmilla Adams, Mrs. Joyce Adams-check, Mrs. Myrtis Allen, Mrs. Diane Gallipeo, Mrs. Rebecca Tacy, Mrs. Snow Morris, Mrs. Nomah Peters and Mrs. Peggy Winters.

For men's wear, James Engleman, Jimmie Ketner and Richard Plath.

For children's wear, Kim Allen, Kathy Bosch, Dawn Cunningham, Kelly Cunningham, Jimmy Joe Negrey and Danny Peters.

Models appeared against a summertime background of flowers.

Sweet Adelines
Intermission entertainment was provided by the Saratoga Chapter of Sweet Adelines Inc. The Barber Tonic, who sang a medley of songs, included: Mrs. Catherine Buffardi, tenor; Mrs. Theresa Place, lead; Mrs. Ann Adinolfi, baritone, and Mrs. Katy Parlin, bass.

Two gift certificates were awarded as special prizes. The winners were Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Van Buren.

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Emma Cunningham, president of the NCO/Airmen's Wives Club, presented a check for $25 to the NCO Open Mess on behalf of the club. Airman Robert Starks, NCO Club secretary, accepted the check.

After the presentation a buffet was served followed by dancing.

Stores Represented
Store represented in the fashion show were Carousel,

Economy, Erlanger's Fashion Store, Fashion Shop, Starbuck's and Variety's Men's Store, Saratoga Springs; Pender's and Vogue, Mechanicville. Rowe's provided the women's shoes, and Kaye's Drug Store furnished jewelry and hand bags. Mrs. Celia Monaco of the cosmetic staff of Kaye's did the make-up.

Dehn's Florist supplied grass for the stage, and all other decorations came from Starbuck's. The spotlight loaned by Skidmore, was operated by Airman Hartmann. S/Sgt. Broadus was in charge of operating the record player for background music. Public address system was operated by Airman Aguilier, and the microphone was loaned by Walton's Sport Shop.

S/Sgt. Charles Carter took pictures throughout the show. First Sgt. Urelee Covington assisted in planning and preparing the recreation hall for the show.

Mrs. Emma Cunningham, president, and Mrs. Donna Negrey, vicepresident, were co-chairmen of the program and also directed the models.

About 100 persons attended the show, and the club members expressed their pleasure that so many stayed for the buffet and dancing.

Plea for Pet Pays In Animal Week

The Kearney Cat is home! The Saratogian carried a story about the disappearance of a cat belonging to Mrs. Nicholas Kearney, 21 Jumel Pl., soon after Mrs. Kearney was hospitalized three weeks ago.

An appeal was later made for information about the animal.

A Jumel Pl. neighbor who read the story contacted Nick Kearney, telling of the cat's whereabouts.

The neighbor had taken the cat in as a stray but was no longer able to keep her and had just taken her to the Humane Society shelter at Cady Hill. The neighbor immediately called the shelter requesting that the cat be held, and Mr. Kearney identified the puss and took her home. He then made a special trip to the hospital to tell his wife the good news about her pet.

So, the Jumel Place cat will spend Be Kind to Animals Week at home.

There are other animals at the shelter, however, who need homes, and open house will be held all next week, Miss Violet Brown, president of the Humane Society announces. All this week, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., the shelter will be open for visitors in observance of the special week, and James Murphy, superintendent, and his wife will be glad to show visitors the facilities there.

The Humane Society is a member agency of the United Community Fund of Saratoga Inc.

Richard Hajeck

Waterford—Richard A. Hajeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Hajeck, 31 Murray Ave., a senior at Waterford High School, has been notified that he has earned a New York State Regents College Scholarship.

Hajeck has been accepted for admission to the Crane Department of Music of the State College of Education, Potsdam in September.

Miss Lebowich Wins First Honors

The name of Judith Lebowich, a Saratoga Springs High School senior, was inadvertently placed by the school on the second honors list of the third marking period honor roll, released recently by the school and published in The Saratogian.

Miss Lebowich should have been listed among the first honors winners.

High School Students Get Special Invitation to Attend Bridge Play

A special invitation has been issued to area high school students to join the play at the Friendly Bridge Tournaments, with new special student tickets in effect.

A number of high school students have joined the play Thursday evenings, when a lecture is given before the game begins.

"Doubling Low-Level bids" was discussed at the blackboard last Thursday.

During the game Thursday evenings, players may call on director Bob Cline for advice concerning the bidding or play of the cards they hold.

High school students are invited to join the group to try their luck at winning Master Point certificates of the American Contract Bridge League, while receiving an introduction to the fascinations of tournament-style play, he said.

One does not have to be an "expert" to play in the games.

Reading Unit Meets May 15

Officers will be elected by the Iroquois Council of the International Reading Association at its next meeting to be held at the Cambridge Central School at 7:30 p.m. May 15.

This will be the last meeting of the year for the council, which covers Saratoga, Washington and Warren counties.

A slate of officers, headed by Douglas Coughlin, Hudson Falls as president, was presented at the April meeting in Hartford and will be acted on at the Cambridge meeting. Members may also make nominations from the floor if they wish.

The program will consist of addresses from the national International Reading Association convention in St. Louis this month, which will be read by Iroquois Council members. They are: The opening address by Constance M. McCullough, "Changing Concepts of Reading Instruction;" the address of Roy A. Kress for the clinical meeting, "Changing Concepts of Diagnosis;" and the address of Albert J. Harris for the pre-conference institute, "Perceptual Difficulties in Reading Disability."
