

Green Sabres' Launch Hqs. Fund Drive

SCHUYLERVILLE — The Green Sabres Drum and Bugle Corps will be in Greenwich Friday at 7:30 p.m. for a parade and exhibition to advertise the opening of their building fund drive.

The parade will form at the A&P store parking lot and move down Main Street to Wallie's Restaurant where they will present an exhibition in the restaurant parking lot.

According to Angelo Gentile, manager of the Corps, Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy, proprietors of Wallie's were the first persons to become charter members of the fund drive, followed by O. E. S. Hedbring of the Fort Miller Vault Works.

With the Sabres will be "Miss Green Sabres" in the person of Miss Leah Germain and Miss Judy Hazlett, majorette, who will present her fire baton twirling act.

A Mustang convertible has been donated by Jack Carmody of Carmody Ford to be used for one year by the first prize winner of the fund drive. Joseph Lampon of Joe's T.V., Ferry St., Schuylerville has donated a color T.V. to be awarded as second prize winner.

M-Sgt. Rollison Cited by Air Force

achievement or service in the Air Force. The accompanying citation stated that, "during this period Sgt. Rollison's untiring efforts and outstanding supervisory and technical ability have enabled the Radar and Communications systems to be maintained in such a manner as to exceed all SAGE requirements and to warrant the award of the Boston Air Defense Sector Commander's Trophy.

These distinctive accomplishments mark a distinguished career in the service of his country, and reflect credit upon himself and the United States Air Force." Sgt. Rollison serves as a Ground Radar Superintendent at Saratoga AFS. He is a native of The Plains, Ohio, and resides with his family at 16 Elizabeth Lane, Saratoga Springs.

Supper Yields Total $930

SCHUYLERVILLE — Nine hundred thirty dollars was raised as a result of the annual harvest supper sponsored by the Ladies of St. Anne of Notre Dame de Lourdes Church recently, according to a report by Mrs. Ray Zerwick, chairman of the event.

Proceeds included the fancy articles booth, headed by Mrs. Earl Cooney and a special project, directed by Mrs. Harold Goodrich. The award was made to Mrs. J. T. Still.

This report was presented at a meeting of the Society Tuesday night in church hall. A donation was authorized to the Boy Scouts and plans made for the Christmas party, a Christmas party for the children and for corporate Communion.

The parish party will be Dec. 6 with Mrs. Earl Cooney in charge of arrangements; the children's party will be Sunday afternoon, Dec. 18 with Mrs. Marie Watson as chairman and corporate Communion will take place at the 8 a.m. Mass, Sunday, Dec. 4.
